To Whom It May Concern,

I do not usually offer personal recommendations; however, I am convinced there is one company that I must recommend for consideration for Limousine and Chauffeured Transportation Magazine's Operator of the Year- Presidential Worldwide Transportation. They are the standard to which many service providers should aim.

I have personally worked with Presidential since 1998, and our 39 year old company has worked with them for many years prior. I, and the entire Arrangers' Team, have gained appreciation and respect for their knowledge and professionalism as our preferred transportation provider. Their staff is attentive, courteous and thorough. Their technology also allows us the piece of mind that everything is happening on schedule and in the most efficient manner.

We recently teamed up to provide the single largest day of service in either company's history. A pharmaceutical company requested each of their attendees be transferred in sedans, which resulted in 162 individual sedan transfers in just one day and 311 total vehicle moves over the six day program! The program was a huge success due to the mutual respect and constant communication between both Teams.

There is no other company more deserving of the Operator of the Year Award than Presidential Worldwide Transportation. Please contact me if you would like to inquire further about their outstanding services, I would be glad to provide you any additional information beyond this concise recommendation.

Sincerely,

Nicole Marsh, CMP, DMCP
